

Heaven and Nature Sing

I love to see my Christmas tree.
It glows so bright and heavenly,
Reminding me at Christmastime
Of how the starry skies did shine
In Bethlehem so long ago
When heaven's angels were aglow.

To shepherds who were filled with fear
The shining angel did appear
And brought good tidings of great joy.
The Light of God—a baby boy—
Was wrapped with love that very morn.
The Savior of the world was born.

So when I see my tree glow bright,
I thank God for his gift of Light.
For Christ was born for you and me
That we may all shine heavenly—
A bright, eternal life in store
With him in heaven forevermore.
