
In a land by the sea,
A long time ago
Lived a young boy named Nick
Whose legend few know.

As a child dear Nicholas
Loved helping and giving
And hoped that someday
He'd serve God for a living.

When young Nick grew up
His dream did come true,
For a bishop can help
His whole flock the world through.

Nicholas sold all he had,
Gave his wealth to the poor,
Surprising three girls
With gold coins by their door.
